trike at the root of these causes of functiona lisease of the liver;
FIRST—By relieving the acidity of the stom
sch, and rendering the digestive functions per iect.
SECOND—By supplying the blood with proper food material to perfect the secretions of the bile.
THRD—By gently stimulating the restored organs to a vigorous efficiency.
In this harmless yet certain remedy is found the only physiological and philosophical solution of this great

TRUSTING COD.

The following is the last hymn written by Mr. P. P. Bilss, and not entirely finished at the time he met his death at Ashtabula.

I know not what awaits me, God kindly veils mine eyes, And o'er each step on my onward way He makes new scenes arise; And every joy He sends me come: A sweet and giad surprise.

IORUS-Where He may lead I'll follow, My trust in Him repose, And every hour in perfect peace Pil sing "He knows, He knows,"

One step I see before me, Tis all I need to see, The light of heaven more brightly shines When earth's illusions flee; And sweetly through the silence came His loving "Yollow Mc."

Oh, blissful lack of wisdom, "Tis blessed not to know; He holds me with His own right hand, And will not let me go; And lulls my troubled soul to rest

So on I go, not knowing I would not if I might; Pd rather walk in the dark with God Than go alone in the light; I'd rather walk in faith with Him Than go alone by sight.
